

MANDATORY MARKING OF CONSUMER GOODS IN 2019 IN RUSSIA

According to the Decree 792-r of the Russian Government dated 28 April 2018, a list of goods has been approved, which have to be obligatory marked with the identification signs, first starting from 01 January 2019 as a kind of an "experiment" with voluntary participants (Russian companies).

Among others (not textile or clothing product groups), the following goods have to be obligatory marked after the period of the voluntary labelling:

Clothing, incl. workwear, made from natural or composite leather, EAEU* customs code 4203 10 000, from 1 December 2019

Tops, blouses and blousons, machine or hand knitted, for women or girls, EAEU customs code 6106, from 1 December 2019;

Coats, short coats, mantles, raincoats, jackets (incl. ski jackets), wind jackets, weather-proof jackets and similar products for men or boys, EAEU customs code 6201, from 1 December 2019;

Coats, short coats, mantles, raincoats, jackets (incl. ski jackets), wind jackets, weather-proof jackets and similar products for women or girls, EAEU customs code 6202, from 1 December 2019;

Bed linen, table linen, toilet and kitchen linen, EAEU customs code 6302, from 1 December 2019;

Footwear, EAEU customs codes 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, 6405, from 1 July 2019.

The new labelling system has been introduced in order to put the illegal manufacturers and importers out of the Russian market. In some product groups, for example, clothing and shoes, the share of such "grey" market players amounts to 50%.

**Official name: Foreign Economic Activity Commodity Nomenclature of the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU); The EAEU customs codes are very close to or identical with the international customs codes.*
